MONEY FOR JAPANESE

The Fire Claims to Be Paid at Once.

The payment of Japanese Fire Claims will commence on Saturday at the office of the committee over the store of

S. Ozaki, on King street, near Maunakea.

The committee has called for the liquidation of fifty claims a day for the first week, the idea being to see just what is the capacity of the office to liquidate the claims.

The Japanese committee will not only insist upon the identification of all claimants by some responsible person, but as well upon the trustee agreement with Ozaki, and likewise the consular certificate. In case either of these papers is lost then the claimant must appear prepared to prove his former possession of the documents, when and how they disappeared and satisfy the committee that he has not pledged these documents, so that no person may suffer in the distribution.

The present plan is to have all payments made by check of the trustees, Ozaki, upon Bishop & Co. The cash as drawn from the First National Bank and the returns from the sale of the bonds to the Bank of Hawaii will be consolidated at the first named bank and the claimant will simply proceed from the committee's office to the bank and there receive 97½ per cent of the face of the claim.

At the rate of fifty a day it will take more than two months to liquidate all the claims, so the expectation is that there will be faster work after it is once inaugurated.

LIBEL ON SHIP FOR $10,000

Sigurd Langaas, seaman, has entered a libel in the United States District Court, against the ship James Tuft, her tackle, apparel and furniture, together with all persons lawfully intervening for their interests therein. By order of Judge Estee, under the process, Marshal E. R. Hendry yesterday attached the ship. The libellant claims $10,000 for "accidental personal damage."

Captain Aug. Friedberg, master of the ship as named in the libel, cabled to the owners in San Francisco for instructions regarding the trouble, delaying to give bonds for the release of the ship until he should obtain their answer. In the meantime Marshal Hendry has placed Gillie Goodman in charge of the attached vessel.

Seaman Langaas in his libel states his cause of action. On the 16th of July, 1902, he shipped in the James Tuft at Newcastle, N. S. W., for the voyage thence to Honolulu, the vessel sailing three days later. A yard spar was placed on board at Newcastle which was thicker in the middle than at the ends. Libellant asserts that the stick in question was insufficiently lashed amidstships, so that it moved up and down wherever the ship was tossed about by the billows.

Libellant did not know the spar was insecurely fastened and on the 18th day out, while he was assisting in hauling taut the fore upper topsail brace, he was thrown to the deck when the ship was struck by a heavy sea. The spar from being insecurely fastened swung up and down, and striking libellant with great force fractured his thigh bone. Immediately after the accident the master caused the spar to be removed to the forward part of the ship.

Langaas further recites that he was on board ship without medical or surgical treatment for thirty-two days and suffered great pain and misery. He is now confined to a hospital in Honolulu, still suffering greatly from his injury.
